This number must be played with the feeling of movement but not rushed. In the second movement the meter must be very controlled, making sure that each two eighth notes and each four sixteenths notes are equal in length to the full value of the quarter notes. There must not be any feeling of the melody being rushed.