Students should take the course that is the opposite of their major instrument.

All students must continue to take class piano for as many consecutive semesters as are required for the completion of the proficiency exam.

+Students should take the course that is the opposite of their major instrument.

□Any beginning language course (including sign language) may be substituted for Public Speaking.

Updated: 7/16/13