

STUDY HEALTH AND DISABILITY IN SWEDEN

MAY 23 – JUNE 6, 2015

YOUR WORLD, YOUR FUTURE, STUDY ABROAD!

The beautiful town of Örebro—with its castle, museums, and nearby Lake Hjälmaren – will be the site of a new program offered in association with the Swedish Institute for Disability Research (SIDR). This 3-credit study abroad course (SPHS 4350/5350) will provide students with an opportunity for interprofessional collaboration & interdisciplinary research in health and disability. students will explore differences/similarities in health services and disability support in the U.S. & Sweden through site visits, research projects, and guest lectures from Örebro University faculty.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBURARY 1, 2015

PROGRAM FEE: $1,500.00 USD

INCLUDES: ACCOMODATIONS IN ÖREBRO, GROUND TRANSPORTATION, EXCURSION TO STOCKHOLM, & INTERNATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE.

AIRFARE, MEALS, AND LU TUITION / FEES NOT INCLUDED. SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE!

PROGRAM CONTACT:

Dr. Vinaya Manchaiah

Department of Speech and Hearing Sciences

vinaya.manchaiah@lamar.edu

Find more information about Study Abroad @ Lamar University

<http://lamar.edu/studyabroad>

jpalis@lamar.edu

